Venture Grant Attracts new Business to Worthington

(Worthington, Ohio) – The City of Worthington is pleased to announce that Physicians’ Assurance Corporation has chosen Worthington as the ideal location for its business. The doctor-run insurance company is locating its offices at 300 W. Wilson Bridge Road. It expects to have 26 employees at that location within the first year. Physicians’ Assurance Corporation was the recipient of a Venture Grant from the City of Worthington, to assist in the company’s efforts to locate in Worthington. “The City of Worthington is delighted to welcome Physicians’ Assurance Corporation to the Worthington business community,” said City Manager Matt Greeson. “Their leadership and staff have a proven track record for providing quality, cost-effective services to their customers. We would like to thank them for demonstrating their commitment to the Worthington community by making Worthington their choice location for their new headquarters.”

Physicians’ Assurance offers competitive and comprehensive health insurance to businesses all across Ohio. Founded in 2005, it is the only central Ohio insurance company that is led by physicians. For more information about Physicians’ Assurance Group, please call 1-866-929-8722.
