

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Anne Brown
City of Worthington
(614) 854-7173

Worthington Police Officer and Firefighter honored by American Legion

(Worthington, Ohio) – The American Legion Leasure-Blackston Post 239 in Worthington recently honored the Worthington Firefighter-of-the-Year and the Worthington Police Officer-of-the-Year at a ceremony on May 21, 2009.

Worthington Firefighter/Paramedic Chris Craig was named the Firefighter-of-the-Year for his hard work and knowledge on disaster preparedness, particularly as it pertains to pandemic diseases. Firefighter Craig has trained extensively in pandemic issues and response and has presented a number of informational presentations on the topic. His expertise during the H1N1 influenza outbreak helped the City of Worthington become better prepared in the event of a pandemic.

Worthington Police Officer Ryan Waring was named the Police Officer-of-the-Year for his commitment to serving and protecting the people of the City of Worthington. Officer Waring has been instrumental in a number of major cases for the Worthington Division of Police. This award honors him for his due diligence and dedication to serving the Worthington community.

For more information from American Legion Post 239, please call (614) 888-9096.

###