

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Anne Brown
Worthington International Friendship Association
854-7173

Greek Celebration Coming to Worthington

Friday, February 5th
6:00 p.m.
Worthington Presbyterian Church
773 High Street

(Worthington, Ohio) – An evening of fine Greek food, festive music and dance is ahead for the whole family at the Worthington International Friendship Association’s International Celebration. The annual event takes place on Friday, February 5, 2010 at 6:00 p.m. at the Worthington Presbyterian Church, 773 High Street.

This year’s Greek theme will be celebrated with delicious food from the Greek Corner and through a traditional dance performance from the ZOEE and Junior Dancers from the Annunciation Greek Orthodox Cathedral in Columbus Ohio. The dancers share the history and culture of Greece through dances which have been passed down for generations. The dancers perform at the Greek Festival which is held at the Cathedral every Labor Day Weekend, the United Nations Festival and other events throughout Ohio.

In addition, donations will be collected at the International Dinner to benefit the American Red Cross relief efforts in Haiti.

Admission is free for WIFA members (with current 2010 memberships.) For non-members admission is $10 for adults/$5 for children. WIFA memberships cost $15 for an individual; $25 for a family; and $10 for students or seniors. For more information on becoming a WIFA member or to make a reservation for the dinner, please call Anne Brown at 854-7173 or email brown@ci.worthington.oh.us. The deadline for dinner reservations is Monday, February 1st.

(more)

The Worthington International Friendship Association fosters intercultural friendships through special events, delegation exchanges, and educational programming. WIFA believes that understanding different cultures and customs is essential for living in the global community of the 21st century.

###